ORDER:

Heard Mr. Mohammed Asrar Ahmed, learned counsel representing Mr. D.Madhava Rao, learned counsel, appearing for the petitioner through video conference and Mr. Dominic Fernandes, learned Senior Standing Counsel for Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) appearing for respondent Nos.1 to 3.

2. The writ petition has been preferred against the order-in-original dated 15.12.2023 passed under Section 73 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, along with the summary of the order in Form GST DRC - 07 dated 30.12.2023 for the tax period 2017-2018 imposing the tax, penalty and interest.

3. The petitioner has approached this Court alleging that it has come to know about the liability only upon receiving call from the authorities demanding the tax.

4. However, after some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty to the petitioner to prefer an appeal against the order-in-original. He submits that some delay might have been occurred in approaching the appellate authority and therefore, he may be directed to consider it sympathetically.

5. Learned Senior Standing Counsel for CBIC submits that the petitioner was at liberty to prefer an appeal against the order-in-original and DRC - 07 taking all the grounds as are available in law and on facts before the appellate authority in respect of the subject tax period.

6. However, upon hearing the learned counsel for the parties, since the petitioner seeks liberty to prefer an appeal, we do not wish to comment on the merits of the contentions raised by the parties.

7. If the petitioner prefers an appeal within a period of two weeks with statutory pre-deposit, the learned appellate authority would consider it in accordance with law also keeping into consideration that it has been pursuing the writ remedy before this Court in the meantime as well. The petitioner will be at liberty to take all the grounds in law and on facts before the appellate authority.

8. The Writ Petition is, accordingly, disposed of with the aforesaid liberty.

However, there shall be no order as to costs.

Miscellaneous applications pending, if any, shall stand closed.
