AND

The Union of India,
Rep., by the Commissioner, Central Tax,

Madhapur, Hyderabad and another.

... Respondents

ORDER:

Mr. E. Hari Babu, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Mr. Dominic Fernandes, learned Senior Standing Counsel for Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) for respondent No.2.

2. Petitioner has assailed the impugned order-in-original, dated 20.09.2023 pertaining to financial year 2015-16 rendered under the proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 (for short, "the Act") invoking the extended period of limitation. The petitioner claims not to have received the show cause notice on the order-in-original, but by way of memo filed by respondent No.2 the acknowledgement of receipt of show cause notice and the order-in-original through panchanama are enclosed to rebut that. Petitioner has also taken other grounds on merit that the services which it has provided fall within the negative list under Section 66D(g) of the Act as amended in the year 2012. Petitioner had approached this Court upon issuance of recovery notice on 30.12.2024 inter alia taking a number of grounds.

3. Learned Senior Standing Counsel for CBIC has opposed the plea taken on merits as well.

4. However, after some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty to the petitioner to prefer an appeal against the impugned order and prays that the delay in approaching the appellate authority under Section 85(1) of the Act may be considered sympathetically also taking into account the time spent in pursuing the writ petition before this Court.

5. Learned Senior Standing Counsel for CBIC submits that the petitioner was at liberty to prefer an appeal against the impugned order taking all the grounds as are available in law and on facts before the appellate authority in respect of the subject tax period.

6. However, upon hearing the learned counsel for the parties, since the petitioner seeks liberty to prefer an appeal, we do not wish to comment on the merits of the contentions raised by the parties.

7. We grant liberty to the petitioner to prefer an appeal within a period of two weeks with statutory pre-deposit and a delay condonation application. The petitioner may take all such grounds of law and facts in the memo of appeal as are available to it. Needless to say, the appellate authority would consider the question of delay taking into account the aforesaid facts and circumstances and if it is satisfied on the point of delay, proceed to decide the appeal on merits in accordance with law. For a period of two weeks from today, no coercive steps be taken pursuant to Form GST DRC-13, dated 30.12.2024.

8. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of with the aforesaid liberty. There shall be no order as to costs.

Miscellaneous applications, if any pending, shall stand closed.
